

What is this award for?

The Excellence in Employee & Family Support award is for individuals and organisations, from any sector, that provide a specialist service to relocating employees and their families.

Why did Simply Learning Tuition Win?

Said the judges, “This small company demonstrates big passion! High-quality service and depth of knowledge are hallmarks of this niche player in the education field.

“Being nimble and highly responsive to change, Simply Learning Tuition applies its flexible approach to ensuring exceptional service quality. Its committed staff are supported effectively by career planning.”

Summing up, the judges called Simply Learning Tuition “a great example of a firm that supports both families on the move and its own teams of professionals by providing added-value service delivery”.

